

It is my honest request and appeal to keep this law in place. Since this law has gone in to effect, my family and I have been able to soend quality time at home and not get disturbed by unwanted calls.